

WEST BENGAL ASSEMBLY ELECTION : IT IS CERTAIN 'DIDI' IS LOSING NANDIGRAM , SAYS JP NADDA :

JP Nadda ( Jagat Prakash Nadda) the national president of Bharatiya Janata Party has targeted West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee by saying that it is certain 'Didi ' is losing Nandigram and she also have to search for another seat to contest .

After this controversial statement, Nadda told ANI ( Asian National International ) that all these statements were strategic and as a opponent party they have information that had been shared by the people of Trinamool Congress to Nadda .

Nadda also proclaimed that he cannot give any assurance of this . But he said that he is sure that Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee is losing Nandigram .

Suvendu Adhikari former colleague of Mamata Bannerjee who had joined BJP recently last year December .On Thursday 1st April the Nation witness the direct contest between Mamata and Suvendu .

Not only JP Nadda as the national president of BJP but also all the BJP members and the followers at Bengal are certain that this time the BJP government will win the most seats at Bengal .

Suvendu Adhikari belongs to a political family as his father and brothers are involved in some political parties .

Adhikari contested from Nandigram as the place is the home turf of him . Mamata Banerjee contested from Nandigram and not from her home turf Bhabanipur constituency .

Over 80 percent voting turnout on the second phrase of the West Bengal assembly . Next will be held on April 6 .

By – Nandini Chatterjee